

SEPARATED FROM CHRIST

THE DAILY CHRISTIAN LIFE

( We must warm up our marriage continually , or like bath water, we will get used to it and it want seem too hot.)

walk in the light (I John 1:5-10)

Jesus calls us friends not servants. He said, " I have chosen you."

We should make our spouses feel special too. (John 15:12-17)

" I am unworthy, I have only done my duty. (Luke 17:7-10)

love the Lord thy God - neighbor as self (Mark 12:28-34)

SLOWLY SLOWLY SLIPPING AWAY

( It doesn't usually happen fast. It is a gradual process of slipping.)

first the duty becomes greivous then (I John 5:1-5)

lust springs forth - concieves- and brings forth sin (James 1:12-15)

then we leave our first love (Rev. 2:1-7)

( It's not enough to just bring home the bacon.) ( They need love.)

TRIAL SEPARATION SEEMS EASY - DIVORCE?

( Most trial separations end in divorce.)

the parable of the sower explained (Matt. 13:18-23)

we begin to love this present world (I John 2:7-17)

Demus did (II Tim. 4:10)

this brings shame to Christ and recrucifies Him (Heb. 6:1-12)

I marvel that you are so soon removed ( Gal. 1:6-10)

THE UGLINESS OF UNFAITHFULNESS

( The spouse is shamed , we should be ashamed. )

you have played the harlot with many lovers ( Jer. 3:1-5)

the great harlot (Rev. 17:1-15)

the flesh warreth againt the Spirit (Rom. 8:1-18)

( The uncomfortableness of the guilt and shame associated with unfaithfulness should make us seek forgiveness,mercy,and peace.)
